Paintball

What better way to celebrate a bachelors then with your male friends and family, in lush bush surroundings, celebrating in true manly style with a spot of paintball with a difference?

Marriage is after all a wild adventure and you can kick off the celebrations with a bang at the fabulously fun bush paintball range conveniently situated in Lanseria (approximately 40 minutes drive from Joburg and Pretoria).

Why not extend the experience by hiring one of the fabulous bush braai facilities after the activities at the bush braai area?

Located on a great section of the river with rapids and bush cover (approximately 1km away from the Range). There are 2 braai facilities that are located on the edge of the river under a canopy of trees (Electricity is available on request). This is a true bush experience so when nature calls, there is a bush toilet.
