

Tjop & Dop on a Train

Tjoo tjoo! Time to steam off into the world of matrimony with an epic night of fun with your mates at this awesome venue where you will actually be sleeping in an old train, complete with original fittings and décor.

Situated in the peaceful Cullinan Conservancy, what could be a more perfect nostalgia setting for the Groom's last night of freedom than sleeping in a stationary train coach?

The Bachelor party venue is the "economy class" which consists of two coaches with five rooms each. If any Oom's are joining in the festivities, we'll upgrade them to First Class so that they can get some shut eye while the younger crowd party.
