

Hen's "Knight's"

Topless & Bottomless Waiters

A Hen's night can always use a Knight in shining armour... especially when there is no armour!

There's nothing like a touch of eye candy to mix your cocktails, pour your drinks, and serve the food while you get on with the serious business of enjoying yourself!

All our boys have been chosen for their attentiveness, attention to detail and bubbly personality... oh, and they won't be too hard on the eyes either!

Dressed in smart black pants and shoes and nothing else, these helpful hunks will liven up your party without offending Granny (in fact, she'll probably be polishing up her glasses for a better look!)

NEED TO KNOW

The guys are all well-mannered and well-groomed and while at the party will mingle with the girls, get them drinks, take fun photos, help where they can and create a fun vibe...

You are welcome to provide the guys with a bow tie if required.

Cost: R1,100 for a Topless Hen's Knight's for 2 hours or R1,300 for a Bottomless Hen's Knight for 2 hours

Rate excludes the travel charge.
